As the proud owner of the S&H Systems Corps. "Bullshit" Referee Kit, you are now the person of authority in the game of life. You're responsible for presiding over all aspects of life - social or professional* - from a neutral point of view while making "on the fly" decisions that maintain the order of things and humble the accused "Bullshiter" through a process of humiliation and embarrassment, followed by deep self-examination. (* Use caution in professional situations. S&H Systems Corps. is not responsible for any consequences resulting from usage of the "Bullshit" Kit)

Your kit includes:

Official "Bullshit" Referee Permit

Located on the last page of these instructions and Issued to you by S&H Systems Corps., this permit allows you to own, possess, and use the "Bullshit" Penalty Flag (pending an extensive background investigation). By completing your purchase of this kit, you've shown all the commitment and dedication needed to become a licensed caller of "Bullshit". However, an unacceptable number of bad calls, lost challenges, and general fucking up could result in the revocation of your permit.

Official "Bullshit" Referee Whistle

Used to alert witnesses or other people in the general vicinity that some "Bullshit" just went down.

Official "Bullshit" Referee Penalty Flag

This bright yellow flag is to be thrown directly at the accused offender at the time and spot of the "Bullshit". When hearing about some third-party "Bullshit" or when you are unable to accurately peg the offender for whatever reason, the flag is typically thrown vertically. The flag is wrapped around rare Anasazi beans that weigh the flag so it can be thrown with distance and accuracy. In the case of multiple "Bullshit", Referees typically aggressively throw down the hat they are wearing. If no hat is available, locate thrown Penalty Flag, and throw that shit again.

When Do I Call "Bullshit"?

When witnessing a complete falsehood:

"Bullshit..."

To have found something at odds with a generally accepted truth:

Honestly, True Blood has to be one of the best shows on TV.

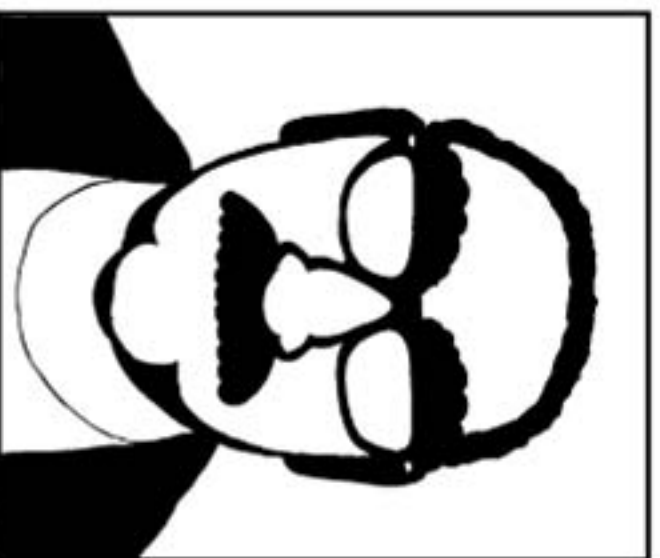

“Bullshit!”

To express distaste or aggravation:

“BULLSHIT!!”
